

Clarence "Derald" Murphy

November 15, 1928 - August 21, 2017

Mr. Derald, at the age of 88, went home to be with the Lord on Sunday, August 20, 2017 surrounded by his loving family. A native and lifelong resident of Albany, and graduate of Hammond High. Mr. Derald and his beautiful bride Neville recently celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary together. He loved his family, and was a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather. He was called into the church at a young age. Over the years he held many positions within the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints such as class room teacher, coach and referee, Branch President, and just about every position except Bishop. Mr. Derald could fix anything, he was good with just about everything, especially within his given profession as an electrician which he began at the age of 20. Mr. Derald touched many lives and will be missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Derald is survived by his loving wife, Neville Hester Collier Murphy; their children, Ann Drury and husband Harold, Sandra M. Banks, George Ann Murray, and Deralynn Hoyt and husband Gary, D. David Murphy and wife Natasha; their eight grandchildren, and twelve great grandchildren; brothers, Frank Murphy and wife Flora, Conrad Murphy and wife Ann, and George Nelson Murphy.

Preceding Mr. Derald in death are his parents, Georgia Ann and Clarence Percy Murphy; sister, Rosalie Brown; brother, Wardell Murphy, along with two grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral service at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, on Old Baton Rouge Highway, Hammond on Thursday August 24, 2017, at 2:00 p.m., with visitation beginning at 10:00 a.m. Services to be officiated by Bishop Glen Andersen, with interment to follow at Old Zion Hill Baptist Church Cemetery. Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home.
