

Mr. Cloid "Butch" Johnson

August 23, 1949 - June 5, 2015

Cloid "Butch" Johnson, age 65, passed away, while surrounded by his family and loved ones, on Friday, June 05, 2015 after fighting a long and courageous battle with COPD. Born on August 23, 1949, Butch was a native of Ponchatoula and a resident of Albany. He had a passion for woodworking and also made beautiful handcrafted walking sticks.

Butch was an avid outdoorsman, who enjoyed hunting and fishing. He was the owner of Tiger Safety Supply in Hammond for many years. As a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Hammond, Butch served as an Elder, until his health deteriorated. Above all, he loved his family, although he did have a unique sense of humor and found great amusement in playing pranks on his children.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia Raney Johnson; daughter, Brittany Mizell and husband Chris; son, Chris Johnson and wife Kayla ; step-daughters, Cyndi Glascock and husband Jason, Jenni Thebault and husband Jeremy; grandchildren, Braydin and Caitlynn Mizell, Tristan and Hunter Johnson, Neveah and Kaylei Wall, and Kylie and Dean Glascock; brother, Richard Rody and wife Carla; nephew, Richard Rody Jr..

He was preceded in death by his parents, Dorothy Bernard Rody Johnson Bickford and Cloid Monroe Johnson; stepfather, Aulton H. Bickford Sr.; brother, Robert R. Rody.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the memorial service, which will be held on Sunday, June 7, 2015 at 7:00 pm at Brandon G.

Thompson Funeral Home in Hammond, with visitation beginning at 5:00 pm.
In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your church or organization of your choice.
