

Craig Cole

August 20, 1951 - June 3, 2020

Craig, age 68, passed away at his home in Ponchatoula, LA on Wednesday, June 3, 2020. He was a longtime resident of Belle Chasse, LA prior to moving to the Northshore. Craig proudly served his country in the United States Army National Guard as well as the United States Airforce. During his time in the Air Force he worked in Air Traffic Controller and was a member of the Flying Tigers. For Craig that time was one that he was most passionate and proud of. He enjoyed piddling in his yard and cutting grass. Craig was a wonderful husband, loving father, and one of a kind Paw Paw who will be forever missed.

Craig is survived by his loving wife of 47 years, Marie Cole; sons, John Cole (Misty), Bradlyn Cole (Natasha Fajardo); and grandchildren, Ellery Cole, Henry Cole, Christine Cole, Alexander Cole, Angelique Cole, and Aeden Cole. He is preceded in death by his parents, Etta Mae and John Cole.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Richard G. Brown Fund at the Louisiana School for Math, Science, and Arts at 715 University Parkway Natchitoches, LA 71457 in honor of Mr. Craig.
