

Curtis William Wood

March 29, 1959 - December 9, 2021

Curtis, age 62, passed away on Thursday, December 9, 2021. He was a native and lifelong resident of Ponchatoula. Curtis was a gifted and skilled craftsman when it came to wood working. You could often find him working on creative projects. Curtis also appreciated listening to good music. He was a kind and gentle soul who loved all sorts of animals, and they loved him in return. Curtis was a selfless and generous individual who would give you the shirt off of his back. He could make friends wherever he was, because he never met a stranger and loved talking to everyone. Curtis' family always came first; he was a loving son, brother, uncle, and friend who is already dearly missed by those that loved him.

Curtis is survived by his mother, Annie Mae Portier; sisters Patricia Vining, and Annie Wood; brother, Joseph Portier; along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Curtis is preceded in death by his father, William Martin Wood; stepfather, Milton James Portier Sr.; sister, Betty Sue; brothers, Milton James "Buggie" Portier Jr., James Edward Wood, Billy Joe Wood, Clay Wood, and Daniel Wood.

PONCHATOULA, LA.

“ *Curtis and his brother "Buggie" worked on our home for us--painting ,installing screens--and repairing fences, as well as other projects. They both were careful and precise carpenters and craftsmen. Their sister Patricia has been our friend for many years--and we think of her as a member of our family. Our hearts and prayers go out to the family---and especially to his mother "Miss Annie".
