“ To: Sal and Scarlett

We were so sad to hear of Dakota's passing. We enjoyed meeting and visiting with him and both of you, when we were in La. Our hearts go out to you both and your family. We loved seeing him and playing with him in Hammond. He was a gift from God. I know he is up in heaven with the angels and is a precious angel too. We are so sorry for your loss.

You have our deepest sympathy.

Love to both of you and your family.

“ Sal & Scarlett, my heart aches for the two of you..I thought this poem might give you some measure of peace...

What Makes A Mother

I thought of you and closed my eyes; and prayed to God today I asked what makes a Mother and I know I heard him say.. A Mother has a baby, this we know is true. But God can you be a Mother, when your baby's not with you?

Yes you can, he replied with confidence in his voice I give many women babies, when they leave is not their choice. Some I send for a lifetime; and others for a day And some I send to feel your womb, but there's no need to stay.

I just don't understand this God, I want my baby here He took a breath and cleared his throat; and then I saw a tear. I wish I could show you, what your child is doing today If you could see your child smile with other kids and say "We go to earth to learn our lessons of Love and Life and Fear, My Mommy Loved me oh so much, I got to come straight here..

I feel so lucky to have a Mom, who had so much love for me I learned my lesson very quickly, My mommy set me free. I miss my Mommy oh so much but I visit her each day when she goes to sleep, on her pillow's where I lay.

I stroke her hair and kiss her cheek; and whisper in her ear Mommy don't be sad today, I'm your baby and I'm here." So you see my dear sweet one, your children are okay Your babies are here in my home; And this is where they'll stay. They'll wait for you with me, until your lesson is through And on the day that you come home; they'll be at the gates for you.

So, now you see what makes a Mother, it's the feeling in your heart It's the Love you had so much of; right from the very start.##imported-begin##Lee & Rhonda Fredenburg##imported-end##

“ Sal and Family,

I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your son. I know it's hard to loose a child, especially at such a young age. But, he is no longer suffering . Jesus is taking care of him now. He feels no pain now. My thoughts and prayers are with y'all.##imported-begin##Cindy Walters##imported-end##
