“ I am deeply saddened by the knowledge of my friend and co-worker passing. Dan and I both worked many construction jobs together for Turner Industries between the time that Dan started in 1992 until his retirement. He was the best civil superintendent of the time. On a personal note, Dan gave of his time freely to help others, of which I am one and I will never forget his generosity with his time and labor. God has gained the help of a very good soul.
