

Daniel Lee Stevens

June 4, 1989 - August 29, 2019

Daniel, age 30, left this world on Thursday, August 29, 2019 and entered a place of lasting peace and rest. He was a lifelong resident of Tickfaw, LA. Daniel enjoyed being outdoors and liked to go fishing. He absolutely loved people and never met a stranger. He could make friends with anyone and would strike conversations with everyone around. Daniel had a heart of gold and truly had the gift of forgiveness. He had an infectious smile and a fiery personality. Daniel loved deeply and cared for others whole-heartedly. He will always be remembered by his family as a loving, sweet natured, loyal young man; and will be missed dearly.

Daniel is survived by his daughter, Kaylee Marie Jones; stepdaughter, Allie Haywood; mother and stepfather, Marla and James Rollings; father, Christopher Stevens; sister, Lorelei Rollings; grandparents, Sidney and Linda Bonaccorso, Wesley and Joy Howell; great-grandmother, Rosemary Bonaccorso; special uncle, Mike; aunt, Lee; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins; and many loving family members.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Jessica Stevens; sister, Amanda Lee Stevens; cousin, Jessica Gibson; special friend, Natasha Anthony; uncles, Ferdinand "Skip" Bonaccorso, Ernest Bonaccorso Jr.; and John Bogle.

The absence of Daniel is something time can never fill. Our hearts are broken, but we are more thankful that Daniel's chains have been broken. Daniel, we love you with all of our hearts.

“ Daniel you would always make my day. I'll miss you sneaking up and to kiss me on my cheek and say “Hi Aunt Florence!” with that little boy grin that never changed. I know that life was not easy for you, and that breaks my heart. While I wish you were with us still, It gives me solace to know your next life will be a more peaceful and far better place. Rest In Peace great-nephew. Your family will miss you and remember you until we are reunited on the other side. 🧡

“ I haven't seen you since you were a little boy; I remember your blonde hair, your smile, your cute little personality, you were such a sweet little boy. I remember how much your momma and daddy loved you, I'm sure not one of those things have changed through the years.

I hated getting the news of your passing. No matter how many years have passed, you are my family. You are loved and you will be missed dearly.

My sincere condolences to all the family and friends. I wish I could be there, but know you are all in my thoughts and my prayers.
