“ Mrs. Connie, Mr. Leo, Karen, Brad and family, I am sorry Donald and I couldn't make any of the services for David. So thankful I got to reconnect with him on Facebook several months ago and had him and Brad actually come to one of our revival services at church. I will definitely miss him sending me messages regarding our Savior thru messenger. Please know that all of you are in our prayers during this sorrowful time. May God bless you, comfort you and supply strength in the days ahead. With deepest and heartfelt sympathy, Donald and Judy Lester Scott

“ Aunt Connie & Uncle Leo, Brad & Karen & Melanie, Jessica, & Joey & Fmly

Oh that David, when we were kids at Champ Cooper, yep “Mr. Handsome” and all the girls, including me wanted to be his girlfriend! Now in 4th grade that was silly 😊 but he was a sweetheart, and he still was when he started coming to church 🏛️! But I rejoice knowing that we will meet him again some day, we know not when, but God still sits on his throne!!!! I have loved and been a part of yalls family for as long as I remember Aunt Connie! I love ❤️ you all very much! The days ahead will not be easy but lean on each other, lean on us, your church family, friends but mostly lean on God, for he is worthy to be praised even when we are sad. Jesus spoke in the sermon on the mount and it was called The Beatitudes Matthew 5:4 says
Blessed are they that mourn: for the shall be comforted. Amen
I’m praying for y’all & I love you All,
