

Deborah Ann Boudreaux

September 18, 1962 - December 26, 2021

It is with immense sorrow that the family of Deborah Boudreaux announces her passing on December 26, 2021.

Born September 18, 1962 to Willis and Wilma Boudreaux of Houma, Louisiana, Deborah grew up the youngest daughter of six children. She met her husband, Johnnie Umberger, 40 years ago, while riding her bike. He says he hollered at her and the rest was history. His favorite memories is messing with her while she worked as a cashier at the A&P and going to the disco despite neither of them knowing how to dance. Together they went on to have three children. Deborah graduated valedictorian of her class as she worked and raised her oldest two children. She was a devoted mother and the truest definition of selfless.

She made the best comfort food, and absolutely loved being a grandmother.

Left to cherish her memories along with her husband, is her daughter Amanda Boudreaux and her husband Gary Boudreaux, Jr., her son Christopher Umberger and his wife Krystal Umberger, her daughter Sadie Umberger; eight grandchildren, Brennan, Blake, Alexa, Alayna, Beauwin, Autumn, Charlotte and Garrison; one brother and his wife, Michael and Ruth Boudreaux, three sisters and their husbands, Mary and Kenny Fisher , Marlene and Doug Jewell, Darlene and Don Landry.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Willis and Wilma Boudreaux; and her brother, Paul Boudreaux.
