“ Lisa, James and Ms MaryAnn, I am sorry to hear of Debbie's passing. Remember the days sharing pew with her at The Word and The Way. She seemed as though she loved to come to church. Even when name of church changed, she and Rick had the desire to attend, but Satan always put other things in the way to hinder their coming. But only God knew Debbie's heart and He has already had His appointment with her. If I were to judge, I would say, believe when she accepted Him and was baptized at a young age, she knew what she was doing and was sincere. But only God can judge. Keeping prayers going for your family, especially Ms Maryann. Love yall
