

Deloris Irene Bowser

November 9, 1961 - August 20, 2018

Deloris Irene Bowser

Deloris went to her heavenly home on Monday, August 20, 2018 after a courageous 8-year battle with cancer. The word 'Mom' defines Deloris, however there isn't any word yet in our vocabulary that captures the depth and breadth of motherly love that Deloris had with Nathan. Her departure from this world will by no means separate her from her dear son Nathan. Their unique connection will continue as Nathan remembers and misses her dearly, and Deloris will certainly be ever-watchful of her son and best friend.

Deloris is survived by her son Nathan Tucker (Evan); her partner, Kenny Brown; sister, Candice Miller; brother Mark Bowser; and dad Sherman Bowser.

Deloris is preceded by her mother Shirley Thompson; and brother Michael Bowser.
