“ *Was in need of a brake job for my car many years ago. I didn't know how to replace brakes. Dickie said do it. Had idea of what had to be done and how to do it because I had watched him and others do it. I replaced the brake shoes and pads. I did all that had to be done and Dickie checked the work and we adjusted them together. Good to go. I thought that was a good memory because of him I gained the knowledge to do the brakes by doing it myself and the special interaction as brothers-in-laws. But over the years I have never had to fix brakes on that car nor any other car nor vehicle. In other words didn't ever have to use the knowledge again. All well, that's fate. Thank-you Dickie. Love!
