

Dillon Ray James

November 3, 1981 - March 6, 2024

Dillon Ray James, age 42, was born on November 3, 1981, in Ada, Oklahoma. He passed away at his home March 6, 2024, after a long fierce battle with addiction. He fought his battle like a warrior. He grew up in Broken Bow, Oklahoma. Attended elementary school in Oklahoma, middle school in Arkansas. High School in Louisiana. He would often tease about our family being Nomads. He is remembered for his easy going, unassuming way, kind, respectful, quiet man. Playful personality and great sense of humor. He was a great cook, and he always enjoyed a good meal. Dillon was a proud member of The Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma, very proud of his heritage. An avid reader, he was knowledgeable on many subjects and always ready to share his information with anyone quick to share many useful and useless facts. He was loved deeply by his family. The day Dillon died a part of us died along with him. We will miss him for the rest of our lives. His struggle is over now, and he is at peace.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandmother Imogene James; Paternal grandparents Burl and Louise Morris; uncles Marvin James, Arnold James, and Teddy Ward.

He is survived by his parents, Robert and Janice Morris; sister, Lila Harkins (Roger Graham); brothers, Travis Morris, Todd Russell (Veronica); nieces, Mallory Graham, Brooklyn Morris, Holly Russell; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.
