“ Ms. Moore was a teacher - no better accolade can be said than that. My fondest memory of Ms. Moore was her ruling the junior high hallway at SWA with that yard stick - proud of her secret power - she controlled ringing the bell. We were blessed to have had such a gifted dedicated teacher as Ms Moore.##imported-begin##Marlin Mullins##imported-end##

“ I came to Southwood Academy as a 9Th grade student terrified of mathematics. Mrs. Moore the first teacher that was able to translate this strange language to me. I learned over time to overcome my fear and I went on to earn my Bachelors Degree in Electrical Engineering. That would have never happened if I had not met Mrs. Moore those many years ago.

When I sit down at the kitchen table to help my daughter with her with Algebra, I often tell her of THE TEACHER that was most influential in my life. "Calm down, take a deep breath, take it a step at a time..."

Rest In Peace, Mrs. Moore###imported-begin###Remy Francois###imported-end###

“ Harold and Boys:
Please accept my condolences in the loss of your wife and mother. I am Harold's cousin -- my grandmother and Aunt Lizzie were sisters. I remember Dixie's always positive attitude about life and her contagious laugh and smile. We sat many hours on Aunt Lizzie's back screened porch where wonderful stories about days past were told.###imported-begin###Judy Kelly Vail###imported-end###

“ Harold, my sincerest condolences on your loss. Your mother was such a gifted teacher and loving person. I think she genuinely cared about her students and did her best to help us all. I saw her a few times since I returned to Louisiana, and she always spoke to me and asked about my sisters. What an amazing memory! Love and prayers to you and your family.##imported-begin##Lynn Mathes Garro##imported-end##
