Karen...you perfectly captured the radiance and wonder of Dona Jane. She saw no status or elitest levels. She exuded joy and happiness wherever she went! Everyone she follow her lead regarding people...making for a better world. I know her sweet mother Barbara Jane and her "Didee" Donnie were in the welcoming group 🤗

Karen and Glenda, I echo your sentiments. My Mom sold Fuller Brush and later in the 50s, Avon. When she got to Miss Barbara Jane's, Mom and my brother Robert and I were all welcomed as guests. Dona Jane was the legacy of Christian Love for all. I hadn't seen her for years until I visited the office on business with Duke - there she was, just as I remembered. The same sweet smile that made everybody love her. GOD Rest your spirits, Dona and Michael ! 🙏❤️😔😔 i agree Maurice! Miss Barbara Jane was the epitome of kindness and grace. Dona Jane was the image of her sweet mother and followed her mother's legacy.

“ Dona Jane...We had no idea when we stopped by to bring you Valentine's Cookies that you would depart this life two days later. You opened the door vibrant and sweet with your totally delightful little girl giggle...saying..."Oh my God, Oh My God. Oh My God."...but that was who you always were...kind...but grateful for anything done for you. Your signature giggle just brought joy to anyone in your presence. So many wonderful memories. You and Mike were there for us in happy times and sad. in fact you came out to the car to speak to Alan and encourage him in his recovery of cancer. Even in your own pain you cared about Alan's recovery and have been a cheerleader for him! You and Mike have left a Huge void in our lives and even more so for Skye, Mikey and Haden and all your siblings and extended family. You and Mike missed each other too much already and knowing you as I do for all these years you are already planning for the day we will all arrive home. Surely Jesus was the only one ahead of Mike to welcome you home. You told me you liked what I said about Mike being young and handsome and strong again and you precious one are young, beautiful and strong again continuing to watch over Skye and Emily, Mikey and Gina, Haden and your family and friends. We love you Dona Jane...Thank You for being our life long friend. Glenda and Alan
