“ Dear Donna, Dee Anne, & Tiger.....So sad to learn of your Father's passing. I remember the last time I saw Mr. Don .....Donna, you & your Dad saw Mom & I at Walmart. It was so good to see y'all. We lost Mom in May of 2018. I miss her so very much.....As you all will miss your Dad. I still recall the day I first met Mr. Don.....He had come to do a job for my parents.....I was very young.....he told me that he had a little girl at home near my age & he would like for me to meet her.... Thus began our childhood friendship. Donna & Dee Anne.....Thank you both for the years of happy times we shared together. We certainly did not have much.....but we we're RICH & didn't know it. A simple childhood with wonderful loving parents. I still consider my precious Mother & Father to be my dearest earthly friends. Dee Anne if you weren't the most precious little curly head....a little Shirley Temple. You were always laughing & fun.....and tough as nails. Donna you were my first best friend. A sweetheart you were. Love you friends. My thoughts & prayers for your family. I truly know the loss. I miss Mom & Dad everyday. I am still in the old Dickens home. Carolyn Dickens Songy
