“ Sorry to hear of Mr. Donald’s passing. He was a good, hard working, honest man with a house full of children & a barn full of cows for them to milk (he & TKS had much in common). He will be sadly missed by all that had the honor of knowing him.
RIP Mr. Donald

“ Although I did not know Mr. Donald my brothers and I knew Donald Jr casually around Amite and at Southeastern. He was absolutely one of the most handsome, nicest and friendliest guys we ever knew. Donald Jr was never forgotten by many of us who simply had the good fortune of only casually knowing him. He emulated being raised right! To all the Herring Family ...my thoughts and prayers are with you. May it comfort you to know that Donald Sr and Jr are together again...
