Donna Flynt

She always had a smile on her face and was truly willing to help anyone at any time. Words cannot express the love and adoration Donna had for her husband and her eight children. She is also survived by one sister, Angela Traylor Kinchen of Bokoshe, Oklahoma and her father, Donald Wayne Gill of Albany. Donna was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, Sylvesta and Marie Traylor, father-in-law, Freddie Martin Flynt and her step father-in-law, Troy Davis.

“ As time passes, thinking of you never seems to get easier. I try to stay positive but as the holidays approach, I can always feel your presense hovering like a tingle at the back of my neck. I miss you mom, Merry Christmas.

“ Happy mothers day momma! I can't believe it has been 14 years since we said goodbye. The pain of your departure has been very difficult for me and the other kids. We were all so very young. But don't worry because we made it through and are doing just fine now. I still think of you often and wonder what you would think of our accomplishments. But I know you would simply be proud.

I had to move away to figure out what I needed in this life. I am sorry to say that I am still trying to figure that out. But I have learned that life is very much fluid. Constantly shifting this way and that, and total control and balance is unattainable.

I look forward to seeing you once again when my time on this earth is done. But until then, I will keep moving forward through this uncertain life.

Love,
A.Bonds

“ 14 years has not taken away the sorrow of you going to Heaven before me. I miss you my sweet friend. Your children are awesome but you know that. Love, Red

“ Momma,

It has been 6 years now and I miss you terribly. There is not a day that goes by that I do not think of you. There is so much that I want to tell and show you. You always knew just what to say and do when life seemed to crumble into pieces. And although I am getting by, often times I feel as though I am only going through the motions... pretending to happy and content so that others can go about their happy little lives and feel no pity. But the truth is that I am not happy nor content. Most of the time I am miserable because I have lost you, my best friend and confidant. When I need you the most, I reach out but can only grasp empty air. Every day I pray for this awful feeling to just away so that I can some form of peace and happiness. Maybe one day it will.

*I love you so very much,
A. Bonds*

*As I sit here by your grave with eyes filling up with tears. Trying to think but everything goes blank. A side that no one sees because I hold it all deep within. I miss you a ton more than others know. I don't talk about it a lot because I don't like people feeling sorry for me. But I do miss you like crazy.

“ I got to know Doona recently during a Hosp. visit with my husband. Her Mom would come and talk with us and tell us how she was doing. She told us what a good mother Donna was and how that smile never left her face even during the worst of times. Donna is free of her pain now. Please know that you are still in our prayers. May God bless you for helping Donna cope with her condition. She will be sadly missed.##imported-begin##kelly britton##imported-end##
