“ *To Donna Family,
I am in shock I just keep telling myself it's not true. We lived in Harahan many years ago. My brother worked with Donna and Miss Dot at Breaux Mart. I knew Donna when she was still in High School. After I moved to the north shore. Everytime I saw her we would stop and talk just a few minutes. I move here in 1985, I was on glad to see her and Miss Dot in K-Mart one day. I didn't know many people. Donna always had the pretty and sweetest smile. I'll never her smile. She was just a wonderful LADY. Please know you are all in prayers I wanted to come to her services, but I have the flu. And no one needs it. May God give you strength to go on. I know it will be very hard. Always remember the good times she would wanted it that way. Her children were live she made each of strong people in your own way. I know many of us will Her.##imported-begin##Shannon Heltz##imported-end##*
