He sure did have an amazing smile. It's four years tomorrow and it still doesn't seam real. He remained a God fearing man through his entire life. I know without a doubt he is in heaven and all those questions he had are finally answered and those demons he fought with are no more. He never lost that smile and he was always looked at life in a positive way. I couldn't have had a better brother. Thank you so much for your kind words and taking the time to share

“ *Mr. John, Mrs. Sandra, Thomas, Kenya, Kinion, Johnell and family, I am so deeply saddened to hear about Donnie. Being over at your house when I was in grade school was always the best of times. I felt as if I was a member of the family too, since I was forever spending the night with Kenya. Donnie was so sweet and so much fun to be around. He had a smile on his face all the time!! I wanted so much to be there for you yesterday and had made plans to attend--however my son was sick and I had to bring him to the Dr. Just know that my thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you, during this most difficult time. The whole thing still is a blur and feelings like a dream but I want you to know my mother remembers you at the wake, what you said and have her. So many of his old friends came out and I'm telling you he wouldn't have believed it. We all have our demons and finally his are gone. He never lost that gods kind of crazy, he always patched up family drama, he never lost his strong belief in God and had the biggest heart. As a big brother, he was like a king to me. No matter what he was doing are going through, Donnie would be there when you needed him. Thank you for keeping his memory alive

“ Donnie always looked on the bright side of everything, even if things weren't going so good. If I was having a bad day at school, I would see Donnie and his great smile and I would feel better. He loved playing football and we enjoyed watching him play - miss ya dude!##imported-begin##Chad Courtney##imported-end##

“My sincerest condolences. He was a great friend. From going to school together, to chasing girls and trying to stay out of trouble, to playing hours and hours of basketball in a driveway or gym, I have the fondest memories growing up with him. For a dozen years or so, he was among my best friends. Of course, as we grow older, we get tugged in so many different directions by work and our own families, and we don't always stay in touch. However, your true friends in your teenage years are always your true friends. I miss him.###imported-begin###Matt Hunt###imported-end##
