

Douglas Wootan

April 7, 1947 - July 23, 2012

Douglas Wayne Wootan On July 23, 2012, Douglas Wayne Wootan, age 65, lost his battle with pancreatic cancer. He was able to pass away peacefully at home with his family. Douglas was an extraordinary man who lived life to the fullest on his term and loved his family more than life itself. He was an oil and gas consultant with more than 30 years of work experience in offshore and onshore oil and gas production and facilities construction. Douglas is survived by his wife, Ana Wootan; children, Christine Bray and husband Bill, Mario Wootan and wife Carmela, Michael Wootan and Hollie, Nicholas Wootan, along with his grandchildren, Will and Hollie Bray, Damien, Logan and Jade Wootan. He is also survived by his sisters, Judy Laymon, Jeannie Barrett and Shirlet Standefer; brother, Charles Forbes; mother, Wanda Forbes, as well as, many nieces and nephews. Preceding Douglas in death was his father, Douglas Eugene Wootan. A memorial mass will be held at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Port Sulphur on Saturday, July 28, 2012 at 11:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in honor of Douglas to any special forces wounded warrior foundation. Douglas was truly a special person who touched so many lives with his zest for love and will be truly missed by many. Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com. Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home of Hammond.
