“ Dear Pawpaw Eddie... We only met a few times, when I was little. I want to think you for alot that you've done in your life. You are missed dearly. I wish I could have met you more, but alot of things were complicated with my mom, dad, sister, and more.. But, I love you and hope to see you one day.

“ When I think of Daddy, I think of a humble man. He never held a grudge, and always forgave. He loved The Lord and always talked about the Bible. He handed out tracts, and supported many missionaries and missions. He left behind a wonderful legacy for his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. I Love you, Daddy##imported-begin##Wanda Baldwin##imported-end##
