“ Eddie was my very best friend in the world. We used to watch all the Saints games together. When he needed a place to live, I found him a home in Pearl River that he could own without a mortgage. He was my best buddy from 1984 onwards. He is the only one who came to my wife's funeral on Roanoke Island in 2003. I was just devastated when he died. I went to the visitation in Ponchatoula, but I was too upset to go to the graveside service. I have a tribute to him tattooed on my arm; I will never forget my friend Eddie, and I am so happy that I will see him again in Heaven, where there is no more death or pain! I love Eddie, and I will see him again, forever and ever!

“ Remembering such fond memories of us growing up. We've had our agreements and disagreements, had our differences, but have always cherished and loved one another, no matter what. You are no longer in pain. Rest in peace my dear brother and fly high. You're reunited with Daddy and the rest of family and friends. Love you both. Big hugs and kisses to you and Daddy. Come visit me in my dreams. Love Always, Debbie Bailey Serio
