

Edward Genest Sr.

June 10, 1969 - August 30, 2013

Ed Genest, Sr.

Age 44 and a resident of Hammond, Ed went to see his Heavenly Father on Friday morning, August 30, 2013 at North Oaks Medical Center. He was a hard worker who started working his sophomore year in high school. His grandfather inspired him to become a truck driver, where he traveled the United States for over ten years. Ed was a dedicated worker at Wal-Mart Distribution Center, who also loved the festivities of Mardi Gras and most of all spending time with his son.

Ed leaves behind his son, Edward Genest, Jr.; mother, Dolores Genest; uncle, Louis Genest and wife Gloria; aunts, Annette Thompson and husband Sherman, and Gloria Olewine and husband Melvine; step-daughter, Jennifer Carter and step-son, Norman Carter III.

Preceding Ed in death was his father, Andrew Breton.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the memorial visitation from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home, west of Hammond, on Saturday, September 7, 2013 from 1:00 p.m. until the memorial service at 2:00 p.m.

Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home

“ Ed, lots of fond memories of us growing up together, especially at memes during the summer. Remember how we used to bang pots and pans like drums? Ohhh how that went over! My first was when you stuck your hand in memes hot mac n cheese casserole!! Ouch. And we have the pics to prove it :). You have been missed Ed. You will always be Eddie to me. Love, your cousin Lisa.

“ So sorry that Ed's life was so short. We will miss his bright shining face and always cheerful countenance and the fun times we spent with him. Praying for Dolly, his mother, that the Lord will sustain her in these trying times.
Love and Prayers, Uncle Lou and Aunt Gloria
