“ My earliest memory of Uncle Ed was he and Uncle Randy asking me to "pull their fingers". I was probably 4-5 years old and they were teenagers. From him playing "dead skunk in the middle of the road" and other songs (I always thought he was such a great singer/musician) to insisting that he was really my "favorite uncle" (which I can never agree to because I had three great ones), I will always have wonderful memories of my Uncle Ed. Kathy, Chris, Ron, and Mom, my heart is with you all.

“ "The funniest man on earth" gosh what can I say other than when I'm on the phone with kathy you say " it's ok baby, I can fix my own food" ' cause we would be on the phone for a couple of hours! Lol any time I think of you I laugh because that's the kind of man your were. Also, loving, you were soooo loving and sooo good to kathy and you gave her strength. She's going to be so much stronger now because of you!

Gonna miss you "funny man".
