“ Mr.Edwin was always making people smile and laugh.I will always remember when they moved across the road from us many years ago.I think that was the first ever of seeing a mobile home,i was glad to go across the street to see if they had kids to play with and Mr Edwin or Mrs Evelyn didnt run me off but that is when i got to meet his oldest son Eddie.Mr Edwin let us play over in his yard alot.Then they built a big beautiful home in those days i saw a big huge 2 story brick house another 1st of seeing such.But he build it we got to go over play up stairs probably driving him crazy but he never once got mad at us.He was quite but you would never know what he was going to do to make us laugh.His door was always open what ever time night or day.Even till recently if he was coming or going from Eddie's and Mona's he would always wave and smile,i would do the same back i always look to see if it was him.I will miss seeing him,but i will never forget how nice of a man he was. Mr Edwin had lots of hurdles in his live but never gave up,like when that beautiful 2 story house across the street flooded the 1st time he didnt throw in the towel,but restored his home and they never left.They lived upatairs and wherher the storm.The last time i talked to Mr Edwin he was telling about him dating Tina Oliphant and i joked with him about getting a young one that time i remeber him smiling likevold
