“ Lydia (as I call her) was pretty much my boss when I worked as a contractor for Barrister on the Canadian Pacific Railway account in Minneapolis/St. Paul. She was so nice and so funny and when I had to attend more rigorous training for a big account, I finally was able to meet her and she was as sweet as ever. She was bossy to me, but only in a good way. She would say things like, "No honey, this is what you're gonna do..." and "Minny-In-Apolis" is how she pronounced the city. Her and Steve invited me to stay at their home and I had so much fun with those two, it was great. I had never been in the deep south before, except for El Paso...big deal. I miss her and am sorry that I didn't keep up on my Facebook page to realize how fast her condition worsened. I'm sorry for Steve and hope he is aware now that she is not in any pain and in a better place. If Angels are real and I believe there are Angels, I hope she is watching over me so I keep on the straight and narrow. Rest In Peace, Lydia. I love and miss you. Thanks for everything you did to keep me in the money...you were my fa. RIP, My Friend.##imported-begin##Scott Robertson##imported-end##

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there... I do not sleep.
I am the thousand winds that blow...
I am the diamond glints on snow...
I am the sunlight on ripened grain...
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you waken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of gentle birds in circling flight...
I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry—
I am not there... I did not die...

Love you Liddy!##imported-begin##Cally Deare##imported-end##
