“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Aunt Sis was one of the most wonderful souls I have known and been loved by. She used to give me my baby bottle after mama had taken it away. I always knew when I got to her house I would have it again. Her and my grandmother Yvonne Owens were living on Thomas Street where the bowling ally is now, she was taken something and putting in her mouth and I asked what it was she said Stan-back. Well I stood further back. I asked her again what are you taking, she said Stan-back, well guess, what I backed up a little more (I may have been 4 or 5 yrs old at the most. Well we done this again and she was laughing so hard I just didn't understand. She finally explained to me that was the name of the powder she was taking. (she had a headache). We had some fun with that later on in life we laughed so hard about it. I seen her a few months ago and she was just as beautiful as always. .Aunt Brenda was in rehab were she was staying. We went and sat with her when I came to see Aunt Brenda. I just spoke to Brenda Lou and she also sends her love. We won't be able to be their tomorrow, but we will be there in our minds and in our hearts. If you need anything we only a phone call way. May god bless this family. Love, Susan Yates Holden and Brenda Dunington Casanova.

“ My grandmother was a kind woman. She knew no strangers. She taught me many things in life. Her beauty was without compare, but it wasn't just outside she was beautiful all the way through. She will be missed. Especially at the holidays when I re-create her pie recipes. Love you Maw maw, Bo.

You are a very wise young man, I haven't seen you in over 20 years. I think we were dancing somewhere i will not name the place we were. I don't remember it anyway. Sending you good thoughts and prayers. She was beautiful inside and out. One of a kind.
