“ Steve and sons,
My heart and prayers go out to you all and the Dottolo family. Liz was a beautiful lady, she always was outgoing and just a beautiful person! I never remember seeing her when she was not beautiful and always gave me a big hug! I know there is nothing I can say that will ease your grief. But know this Jesus said in one of his sermons and it gives me great comfort: Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted. William and I were so sorry we were not able to attend her services but you all were in our thoughts and prayers! God Bless you all!

“ What a beautiful lady. I got to know her through St Albert's many years ago. She was at midday Mass every time I went. Even though she looked like a million dollars always ...as many have stated she had a gentle and humble spirit. She seemed to care for all. I attended the prayer service for Steve when he was about to have his kidney transplant. I remember hugging her and her eyes were full. She thanked me for the prayers for him and Stephen as they were going into this surgery. I also told her I was praying for her as this had to be so hard. Elizabeth Dottolo Pugh flew higher than most of us and I mean that in an angelic way. My prayers for all who loved her so much. The community has lost a precious jewel.

“ My heart breaks for all who loved her with her tragic and heartbreaking passing. It seems she was always there for everyone else. She was so strong, and unfortunately that made it hard for others to reach out to her and to realize she was hurting. We never know the pain someone is carrying in their heart. In her honor, let's pray we all learn to show kindness and compassion at all times. I will never forget her in that I have a beautiful wreath hanging on the door of my bedroom to my deck that was so skillfully made by her. A hardworking, truly talented lady that brought beauty to everything she touched. I will always remember her that way. R.I.P. beautiful Liz.

Liz was a beautiful soul, a beautiful person. I used to ride the bus with her when we were in school. She wrote me a "fan" letter once when I was a senior at PHS. It was just a note thanking me for the songs I sang over the course of my four years. She thought I was gifted. That meant a lot to me. Over the years we would see each other socially, she used to help out the Strawberry Festival Board by co emceeing our Introduction of our Royalty for the SF Ball. The last time I saw Liz, was at one of those Balls and we were dancing our tails off! She will be remembered fondly and I will continue to keep her children and loved ones in my prayers. May your soul rest in peace Liz!

Life and Death is often inexplicable. Faith carries us through. My memories of Ms. Liz were so special: playing Christmas music on the Grand piano while she and her family entertained their friends during the holidays! We had such fun! Before the party started, we met in the kitchen for the fresh, warm, straight-out-of-the-pot Pecan Pralines--I believe her family's recipe---along with the home-made goodies and treats and punch she had made for all her guests! She loved those boys and loved talking about her family to me! I loved her sparkle and she loved people! She was special in many, many ways! She loved music...and her smile could light up a room! Liz you were loved by many...and we will continue spreading your sparkle by loving each other. Prayers, love, and blessings for all your friends and family, Rebecca Waller Gillan
