“ Alan, Hope and Becky,

Beth and I are so sorry for the loss of Uncle El. He has been through a lot and now he is home and well. Heaven is rejoicing in his appearance and I know he is happy being back with Aunt Pat, his sisters, Mona and Opal and Grandma and Grandpa Poppa Sid. Got a feeling heaven will not be same since they are all back together again. Again Beth and I are thinking about each of you and praying for you.

“ My Tribute to Bro Elwin L Wax

When I think of Bro Elwin L Wax, I think of a very kind man who was my friend. I actually believe he came across that way to all who met him.

He was very unassuming in his manner but had an air about him that let you know that he was not floundering around as he made his way through life. He knew where he was going and was at peace with that knowledge.

Bro Wax loved the Lord, his family and his church and will be missed by all. His passing leaves us with a sense of loss but not a sense of hopelessness. All does not end at the grave for this saint of God. His spirit tells us where he has gone for he has reflected to all who were blest to have met him, that he is a child of the “Most High”. He now lives in heaven with his Lord whom he loved and served. He has achieved his highest earthly goal.

My wife joins me in extending, to each of the children and extended family, our deepest sympathies at this time of your great loss. I am praying that each one of you will make preparations to meet this dear loved one again, in the morning of Gods eternal day.

Sincerely,

Rev Paul J. Eversole
