“ I know you are in pain and I am sorry. I have learned something that has helped me cope with losses of my loved ones. The Bible says God keeps His loved ones in "the bosom position". That brings me great comfort. It further says death will be brought to nothing at Rev 21:4&5. It told me I will be reunited with them when He resurrects them. This helps me see the hope through the pain. I hope it helps you too
