“ Junior- We called all Six of our Children and their families and they were sad to hear Aunt Eva had passed. Along with us they send their Love and Condolences to you.

I always remember Eva, and how she enjoyed that trip to Estes Park. She loved seeing the towering cliffs that hung over the Highway through The Big Thompson Canyon as we traveled to the entrance of Rocky Mountain Park.

Chuck said his best memory of Eva was our trip down Phantom Canyon when you drove, and he was in the front seat and Eva, Joyce and I were in the back seat.

That was a scary trip and I told Chuck I never want to go down that mountain road again!! A Beautiful View, but Scary!!!

I Love you Junior!
