

Faith Elizabeth Rawlings McCullough

September 13, 1937 - July 9, 2020

Faith Elizabeth Rawlings McCullough, age 82, passed away on July 9, 2020. She was a native of Birmingham, AL, and a resident of French Settlement, LA. Faith worked for many years as a computer programmer for the Department of Defense and after retirement she was a greeter at Louis Armstrong Airport in New Orleans. She loved spending time at the casino and was always on the go. She will be remembered as an independent and social person. She was truly a kind and spirited person and her spunk and quick wit will be greatly missed. Please send the family prayers for comfort and strength in the coming days.

Faith is survived by her son, Bill McCullough and wife, Amy of French Settlement, LA; grandchildren, Tiffany Cleland of Covington, LA, Ashley Roebuck of Albertville, AL, Annalene McCullough of Mandeville, LA, Logan Petersen of Tucson, AZ, Connor McCullough of French Settlement, LA, and Kera McCullough of French Settlement, LA; great-grandchildren, Willow Bullard, Kennedy Cleland, Joshua Cash and Ashton Cash; brother, John W. Rawlings.

Preceded in death by sons, Victor O. McCullough and Wyatt McCullough; and parents, Rev. John and Eloise Rawlings.

A special thanks to her caregiver and companion, Euralvetta "Boo Boo" Chaney, for her love and friendship.

Tribute Wall

“ *I love you Geauxmme! you are greatly missed!!
love ashley*

Ashley Roebuck - July 21, 2020 at 12:04 AM