“ I met Ms. Faith a year ago when she was searching for a cat to replace hers that was killed. She was a very special lady that was a joy to know. her talents in writing poetry, playing the harmonica and her loving heart was the reason i loved her so much. she called me her adopted daughter because i no longer had a mother and she had no children. Her companion, Debbie Blu Belle will bring me comfort every day i hold and pet her. linda
