“ Just like it was yesterday since I saw you last and still a strong woman as you were when I knew you in my younger years, you never changed your good ways! You will be missed by us all and your last words you told me keeps the tears away! It would be selfish of me to ask for a few more days to see your living sole, but yours was full of pain and now your released from that pain, your in a better place! Loved and will be missed, Aunt Lea!

1 Thessalonians 4:16-18 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. Therefore encourage one another with these words.
