“ Pam, your mother was one of the sweetest, most generous people I have ever known. A true lady, her devotion to your dad, you and Clover were there for all to see. I remember her coming to Baton Rouge General with you and doing handwork in our breakroom until time for her doctor's visit. Joe always loved the loaves of bread she baked for his birthday and guess who ate the most of it? We loved her, Pam, and we will not forget this sweet lady.
