

Floyd Ellis Hopkins Jr.

December 21, 1963 - January 31, 2026

Floyd, age 62, passed away on Saturday, January 31, 2026. He was born in Covington, Louisiana and resided in Holden, Louisiana. Floyd was a member of Holden Baptist Church. Floyd Ellis Hopkins Jr. will be remembered as a man who lived life with an open heart, a stubborn streak, and a deep love for the outdoors. He found joy in NASCAR, the thrill of drag races, and wandering through car shows especially Cruisin the Coast. Camping was one of Floyd's greatest passions. As a proud member of the "R.V. There Yet" Club, he cherished time spent on the road and especially loved camping at "Tha River". Outgoing and never afraid to speak his mind, Floyd had a personality that filled a room. He was known for his willingness to help others, often used his skills troubleshooting and fixing just about anything that needed attention. If something was broken, Floyd was the one people called and more often than not, he found a way to make it work. He will be remembered for his generous spirit, his love of adventure, and the many lives he touched through his kindness and know-how.

Floyd is survived by his loving wife of 34 years, Lisa LeBourgeois Hopkins; daughter, Leah Thames; son, Christopher LeBourgeois and wife Kellie; sister, Veronica "Ronnie" Hopkins and husband Bobby Stubbs; granddaughter, Addyson Thames; bonus-mom, Becky "Nana" Ballard; brother, Joe Ballard; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

“ As I sit here and try to figure out what to say about Floyd my eyes are filled with tears because he was my work buddy for the last 8.5 years he taught me so much about building fire trucks and was there to help through some tough times in my life like when my mom passed away he would listen to me vent about things and he would always give me advice on what ever I was thinking about doing or buying he would tell me do you really need that better stop spending money LOL but the best conversation we ever had was when he told me that he had cancer I asked him if we could have a very serious conversation and he told me yes so I asked him if he knew JESUS CHRIST as his lord and savior and he told me yes without a shadow of a doubt so with me knowing that my heart has peace knowing that even though he has left us here on earth I know that we will be reunited with him in heaven when the good Lord calls us home as well I thank GOD for the time that he gave me to be apart of Floyd's life he was a truly a great friend who I will greatly miss RIP Floyd Hopkins till we meet again
