“Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted” (Mathew chapter 5)

Alot of time has went by since we last spoke, but I always had respect for you. You were a man of integrity and worked hard for your family. I will hold with me the best memories of you and there are plenty. Like that unforgettable laugh! My mom (Gladys) adored you! May you and her walk together in God's kingdom. “ I will miss you, so much "little brother" and love you dearly... God Speed and may your laughter fill the heavens. Love and prayers to and for the family. He's no longer suffering and has joined those who have gone on before him. I can only imagine the celebration of their reunion. You have been and always will be in my heart.
