Frank Bova III

Faithful servant Frank Bova III, age 81, resident of Ponchatoula was called home to be with his Savior on Thursday, Oct. 20, 2016. He was born on August 30, 1935 in Hammond, LA. Beloved husband of 62 years of Lucille Fedele; loving father of Michael D. Bova (Carmen), and Randall M. Bova (Anne). Devoted grandfather of Nicholas G. Bova and Blaire Bova-Wright (Tim) and step-grandfather of Seth Barker; great grandfather of Madison H. and Olivia M. Wright; and loving brother of Vincent C. Bova (Patti). Frank was preceded in death by his parents Frank and Mary Gennardo Bova II and infant sibling Mary Ann.

Frank is the former owner of Bova's Headmasters, where he served the Baton Rouge community for over 50 years, the most enjoyable of which, were those spent working alongside his sons Mike and Randy. During the course of his career he accumulated numerous tonsorial artistic awards including being named Hair Stylist of the Year for the State of Louisiana in 1976. After retirement, he kept busy in multiple business entities that he had developed. As a devout member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church of Ponchatoula, Frank served the Lord each day with new found energy and excitement, dedicating himself to improving the quality of life of those in need, with his generosity and giving spirit. He lived life to the fullest, sharing his rich adventures and bounty of blessings with family and friends. “ Frank was my barber for 10 years doting the 70's. He was a class act that really knew how to make young people feel "important" and serious about their appearance. Attached is an ancient picture of his work. Sorry for your loss. Every time he cut my hair he told me how much he enjoyed it. What a great guy that had a positive influence on us guys from Istroma.

A simple im sorry for your loss somehow just doesnt seem good enough right now, but I know for certain that heaven gained a beautiful angel.
