

Franklin Eugene Morgan

October 17, 1938 - November 26, 2021

Frank was born on October 17, 1938 and died on Friday, November 26, 2021, at the age of 83. Anyone who knew Frank knew he was a family man, a hard worker, an avid hunter, and a fisherman. He chose to spend his time outdoors, usually with some of his family. Frank really came to life when his grandchildren and great-grandchildren were born. He delighted in surprising them and making them happy and loved their laughter. Frank was a retired Master Carpenter with Local 1098 in Baton Rouge, LA. He attended Bethel Worship Centre where he was part of the extended church family and was welcomed by pastor and friend, Jerry Hughes and his wife, Betty. Frank is survived by his daughters and sons-in-law, Lisa Annette and Bill Lee, Stephanie and Donnie Bankston Sr.; grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Donna Marie Lowe (Bo), Jameson, Jalanea, Jullian, and Jacelyn Lowe, Denise (Daniel) Rester, Dakota, Delaney, and Dylan Rester, Donnie Bankston Jr. Jennifer (Bobby) Whitecloud Sr., Bobby (Kimberly) Whitecloud Jr., and William Whitecloud; brothers-in-law, Jesse Tate, J.R. Erwin (Marva); sister-in-law, Margaret Watts; along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. He is preceded in death by his beautiful, loving, and devoted wife of 61 years, Catherine "Katie" Erwin Morgan; brother, H.R. Morgan, and wife L.E; sister, Carleen Tate; parents, Howard and Delia Watts Morgan; in-laws, William "Bill" and Ruby Hutchinson Erwin; brothers-in-law, Bill Erwin Jr., Wilson Watts; sisters-in-law, Marie (Doyle) Smith, Eva (Bill) Smith; and nephew Duane Tate. We will honor Frank's wishes and there will be no services For many years he was cared for by Dr. S. Tahseen Rab. During his last years of his life, his health was extremely fragile, and he was lovingly cared for by the personnel at Hammond Nursing Home and Dr. Steve Gaudin. We sincerely thank each and every one.
