

Fred Jefferson Liner

February 19, 1926 - September 27, 2016

Fred J. Liner, Sr., age 90 and a resident of Hammond, LA., passed away at his home on September 27, 2016. He was born on February 19, 1926, in Homer, LA. Fred was a retired insurance executive and lived in Monroe, LA, and Baton Rouge prior to retiring and moving to Hammond. He was a member of the Greatest Generation, having served his country as a U.S. Marine and fighting on Okinawa during World War II. He remained a proud Marine all his life and often attended the Sixth Marine Division Reunions all across the country. He cherished his membership in the Hammond Executive Club and was a faithful member of the First Presbyterian Church in Hammond. Fred was blessed with a wealth of wonderful friends and a family who adored him.

Fred is survived by his son, Dr. Jeff Liner and wife Malloy of Hammond and daughter Cindy Liner of Houston, Texas. He is also survived by two grandchildren, Dr. Zach Liner and wife Danielle of San Francisco, California, and Allyson Liner of Winterpark, Colorado; three step grandchildren, Malloy Peterson (Robert), Quin Ryan of Atlanta, Georgia, and Dr. Brady Rumph (David) of Columbus, Georgia; one great-grandchild; four step great-grandchildren; sister, Virginia Gibbs of Monroe and his first cousin, Milton Wilson of Waco, Texas.

He was preceded in death by the love of his life, Darline Neal Liner, to whom he was married for 66 years.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the visitation at First Presbyterian Church in Hammond, on Friday, September 30, 2016 from 12:00 p.m. until the Celebration of Life service beginning at 2:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to First Presbyterian Church or to a charity of your choice.

Condolences and other information are available online at www.thompsoncares.com.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home.
