

Gail "Jerome" Labat

October 19, 1948 - February 22, 2021

Gail "Jerome" Labat, age 72, passed away on Monday, February 22, 2021. Jerome was born October 19, 1948 in Plaquemine, LA to the late Sidney and Lucette Labat. He is survived by his wife, Bonnie and two sons, Sean (Shalisha) and Christopher (Desiree). Grandfather of Alena, Brienne, Spencer, Luke and Wyatt. He is survived by his brother, Ralph (Elaine) Labat.

Jerome faced many challenges in his life starting with polio at age three. It was after spending so much time in hospitals that he decided he wanted to work in health care. Over the years, he worked at various New Orleans hospitals as an E.R. traction tech, a medical records clerk, a dialysis technician, respiratory tech, nursing supervisor and later a CRNA.

He loved playing his violin with other musicians, enjoyed meeting new people and just talking. He was curious, always trying new things and ever learning. He was known for his integrity, good humor, friendship, and positive attitude. He was bigger than life and will be missed immeasurably.

“ Maria and I will miss Jerome very much and we send our condolences to Bonnie and his sons. We have very vivid memories of watching him play his violin in Cate Square and many other venues. And we enjoyed playing with him at our "jam sessions" where he really lit up the atmosphere with his humor and wit. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Jim and Maria Elena Fournet.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this difficult time. Jerome was a lot of fun, he made our visits from Baltimore happy ones with his jokes and tricks he did. Keep sharing and talking about Jerome and all the memories of him will be the good ones. Jerome will be missed by all who knew him and will be embraced by those who are waiting for him with open arms.
