

Gay Ann Lorio

May 15, 1933 - May 4, 2020

A native of New Orleans, and a long time resident of Covington, LA, Gay was a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She was well respected in St. Tammany Parish for her professionalism as a legal abstractor, doing land title research. In her private life, Gay loved to prepare lavish, gourmet feasts for family and friends, and diligently worked in her garden beautifying her world. Gay is preceded in death by her parents Tucker Stewart and Ene Coffey Stewart, and her brothers Jack and Max Stewart. She is survived by her daughters Vicki Lloyd and Becki Lorio, her grandson Paxton Lloyd, and her great grandchildren, Jonathan and Emma Lloyd.

Owing to current social constraints, no services or memorial gatherings are planned.
