

George Gerard Muscat

April 7, 1957 - March 1, 2024

George, age 66, of Albany, Louisiana, went to his heavenly home on March 1, 2024. He was born in Mobile, Alabama to Vincent and Dorothy Muscat and he loved to tell people that he was “number 8 of ten” siblings. George was a kind and gentle man who enjoyed the simple things in life. He taught work ethic, gave life advice and helped many to figure out the “the right thing”. He enjoyed gardening and “tinkering” outside with his pond and fish. George loved to host and have his loved ones over for the delicious food he made with love. He would do anything for anyone. George was known as a fixer and took care of the people he loved; if he loved you, he made sure you knew it. He was known by friends as “Big George”; but he was never too big to roll up his sleeves to help anyone. He cherished all his loved ones, but the ones that honored him with the name of “Paw Paw” held his heart. George was a silent force of nature whose memory will live on in all those that loved and adored him.

George is survived by his loving wife of 9 beautiful years, Diane Muscat; daughter, Stefani Muscat; son, George “Greg” Muscat; step-sons, Vincent Amato (Tonya), Darrel Amato (Cynthia), Jeremiah Amato, and Adam Amato (Cherie); sisters, Dorothy “Dottie” Clements (Bobby), Theresa “Terri” Tomlinson (Joe); Carmel Hill (Chip), Angela “Angie” Janes (Steve), Joni Noletto (Van), and Dolores Williams (Wayne); brothers, Vincent Muscat (Sharry), David Muscat (Lynn), and Robert Muscat; and grandchildren, Gavin, Jace, Nathan (Shanna), Cayden, Paisley, and Summer; and great-granddaughter, Abigail.

George is preceded in death by his parents Vincent and Dorothy Muscat; and his first wife, Susan Bradford Muscat.

“ I am sad to hear that George passed away. I met George back in our college years when we worked together at the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company in Mobile, Alabama (better known as the A&P Grocery Store). George was a kindhearted big fellow that was not afraid to work hard. He had class and integrity and was someone you could trust and look up to. George inspired and motivated everyone to do their best. Thanks to George, I have many wonderful memories from those workdays. My life and world were better because George Muscat was in it. I am sorry for your loss and will have you and your family in my prayers - Kurtis Thomas, Mobile, Alabama.
