George Elton Quave

George, age 80, passed away on Sunday, November 13, 2022. He was a resident of Hammond, LA and a proud veteran of the U.S Army. He is survived by his daughters, Janice Fairburn, Connie Snyder, and Debbie Holmes; sisters, Rose Lee Willie and Marilyn Hartley; brothers, David Quave, Larry Quave, and Charlie Quave; grandchildren, Joseph Clark, Angel Cox, David Fairburn Jr. (DJ), Niki Hodges, and Justin Snyder; and great-children, Blakely Snyder, Joey Clark, Brix Hodges, and Hayden Cox.

George is preceded in death by his wife, Lena Mae Quave; parents, Nuther and Deanie Quave; brothers, Herbert Quave, Edward Quave, and Donald Quave; and grandchild, Hunter Snyder.

“ My Uncle George was hands down THE BEST UNCLE in the whole wide world! He treated Me, Cindy, and Lisa(Lil aka LeeLee) like his own kids! He was a gentle giant, our other dad, our doctor, mechanic, and counselor. He made us feel safe and LOVED. He showed us what a happy Family and Father looked like; what Godly discipline is, and he was a perfect example of a husband; he loved his wife, my Aunt Lena Mae, til death do they parted. Thank God they are together again; I know she was giggling at those pearly gates when He got there, her perfect Honey, “Debbie’s Perfect Daddy”, Connie’s and Janice’s perfect daddy too! And of Course, LeeLee too! Uncle George, you had a great smile, you could make everybody laugh; we gonna miss you! My Uncle George, My John Wayne of Louisiana, I love you.

Happy tears here at 5:30 am after the funeral service and beautiful/bountiful family gathering. This is such a heartfelt and true testimony to the one and only George! Tracye, I can assure you that his love was pure and that he didn't think twice about being y'all's "daddy" too. "Perfect" daddy, never asked for anything. Mr. Independent was still calling the shots, until his last breath. He didn't want and wasn't use to anybody doing anything for him BUT we managed to do above n beyond what he probably knew we would do. Daddy didn't feel that he deserved the same "respectful and honorable " treatment that the other veterans got.

The QUAVE GIRLS and momma Lena Mae are so blessed by daddy. We know he deserves EVERY bit (and more) of the military service that he got ! Brandon Thompson funeral home handles every detail of services, very unique, personal, and professionally. They truly treat your loved one as a family member. Jennifer, extremely professional and compassionate, was our contact person, although the entire staff was there for our every need. Thank You to all of you! Of course, George would have said none of this was necessary , BUT he KNOWS the QUAVE GIRLS aren't gonna miss a meal, so let me say MANY THANKS to Karla, for organizing the food for the family gathering .Also, many thanks to all who contributed in some way, to feeding the Quave family Special thanks to the Shiloh church . for the use of the fellowship hall . We enjoyed being out of the cold weather , and socializing with family n friends. The stories and memories are all we have of your La. John Wayne and our Mr Independent Daddy ❤️ I'm pretty sure daddy/ would say, "that's enough Janice,, Connie, Debbie.. and you too Lee-Lee. Tracye , and Sonia 🙏❤️
