

Gilbert Paul Boudreaux

April 14, 1943 - January 5, 2021

Gilbert Paul Boudreaux, Sr., a resident of Hammond, LA, passed away January 5, 2021. Gilbert was a proud USMC Veteran of Vietnam and loved camping, traveling and sports. He enjoyed a distinguished Railroad career with the Union Pacific Railroad and was the longstanding secretary/ treasurer of the United Transportation Union (UTU). He was also a parishioner of St. Albert Catholic Church, Hammond, LA. Gilbert “never met a stranger” and his greatest joys were spending time with family and friends and doting on his grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was the beloved husband of Jo Ann Taix Bourdreaux for 56 years and the loving father of Gilbert Paul Boudreaux, Jr. (Lisa) and Dana Boudreaux Prima. He is also survived by his grandchildren Christopher Boudreaux (Ashleigh), Michael Boudreaux (Ashley), Lindsey Prima Gaubert (Craig), Gilbert Boudreaux, III (Whitney), Joshua Prima (Jami), and Noah Prima (Adele); his sisters Zinna Boudreaux Manno, Brenda Boudreaux Hollis; his foster sister, Kathy Alphonso Acosta; his brothers Jeffery Boudreaux, Sr., Wayne, Glen, and Brian Boudreaux; 14 great grandchildren; 12 brothers and sisters-in-law and multiple nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents Lucy Naquin Boudreaux and Jeffery C Boudreaux and granddaughter, Beth Marie Boudreaux.

“ Although I only had the opportunity to visit Mr. Gilbert a few times in my life, I feel as if I knew him well, due to the wonderful times he spent with my parents as they grew up together. Both my parents, Philip Verberne and Maurine Danigole spoke of Mr. Gil and his family with fondness. I remember visiting his farm when I was a teen and how proud my dad was of Mr. Gil and how happy he was to have his high school friend live nearby. My heart is heavy for the loss of such a good man because I know his wife and children will miss him so much. Please know I am thinking of you, Gilbert Jr. And Lisa and Mrs. Joanne Boudreaux, as you go through this difficult time. Next time I am home, I will come visit. All my love, Alice (Lisa) Verberne
