“ Rest in peace, Aunt Gladys. I have so many fun memories from your kitchen table on the farm. So many funny stories that maybe you didn't find funny then, but now that you are at peace and with the Lord would surely bring you joy as they did and do to me. I love you and you will always hold a place in my heart simply for the love you showed to my Dad when he grew up and your efforts to keep my grandmother's memory alive. I know you didn't like for her to wear lipstick, but I would have given anything to meet her . . . lipstick or no lipstick. LOL I just enjoyed hearing you speak of her, taking me to her gravesite and freshening the flowers there . . . and always sending me back to Arizona with something that had belonged to her. Godspeed, Aunt Gladys. I will see you in a minute!

*Love,
Kellie Mae Landry*
