

Glen Hilton Thompson

February 1, 1947 - January 14, 2021

Glen Hilton Thompson, a loving husband, father and grandfather, passed away peacefully on Thursday January 14, 2021 at his home. He was a lifelong resident of Pumpkin Center Louisiana, a member of Trinity Baptist Church, and a veteran of the United States Army Reserve.

He was not a man of many words but the life Glen led spoke volumes. He was humble and a true southern gentleman. As a well-respected home builder in the community, Glen was known for his honesty, integrity, and experience. He had a strong work ethic and passed these values, along with his knowledge of carpentry and construction, down to his sons. Anytime there was a project going on, you could always count on Glen to help, without being asked. In his younger days, he enjoyed fishing, especially on the Natalbany River. In his older years, you could often find him cutting grass, piddling on his rental properties, or maybe even watching Westerns in his recliner. For certain, you could find him enjoying a cup of coffee on his porch first thing in the morning and precisely at 2:00 pm every day.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 54 years, Annie Marie Hutchinson Thompson; sons, Brandon Glen Thompson and wife Martha, and Lance Alan Thompson; daughter-in-law, Lindsay Hagan Thompson; grandchildren, Lauren Thompson Gaudin and husband Derek, Madison Thompson, Emily "Tori" Thompson, Brandon Thompson Jr., Molly June Thompson, Sarah Beth Thompson, and Hagan Thompson; great-grandchildren, Adeline and Annie Gaudin.

Preceding Glen in death were his parents, Wildon and Beatrice Thompson; daughter, Dana Thompson; grandson, Hunter Thompson; siblings, Kenneth "Kenny" Thompson, and Argie Thompson Stewart; father-in-law, Cecil Elliot "Deloy" Hutchinson; mother-in-law, Francis Glascock Hutchinson.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral service from the chapel of Brandon G. Thompson Funeral Home in Hammond, 12012 Highway 190 West Hammond LA 70401, on Monday, January 18, 2021 at 12:00 pm, with the visitation beginning at 9:00 am. The service will be conducted by Pastor Jeremy Glascock and interment will follow in Jerusalem Baptist Church Cemetery. Following the graveside service, guests are invited to return to the funeral home for a catered reception.

“ Pawpaw Glen was not only a grandpa but also the most caring, quiet, strong willed, hard headed, big hearted person I have ever met. He is the strongest fighter and most dedicated person I know. He truly was the best husband, grandfather, brother, uncle, cousin, father, and son he could be. I love him more than words and i will forever miss him. Even though he may have seemed quiet to some people, he had the best personality. It is extremely hard to see him go but now he is in a better place and all of his pain and suffering is gone. Mawmaw Annie is an extremely strong woman and I look up to her in every way. I love y’all infinity

“ Dear Annie and boys,

I do remember growing up on Gatlin Road with all our families working, playing, gardening, and visiting. Life back in our little community was so good. Then your boys and all our children got the pleasure of sharing what we had been blessed to have.

Goodbye sweet friend. Will miss you.

“ He was my brother-in-law for over fifty years. I must say that he was a true example of a Christian. A man of few words but wiser than one could ever imagine. Love y'all so much. Aunt Billie
