

Glenn Anthony Bordelon

December 12, 1959 - December 18, 2025

Glenn, age 66, went to his heavenly home on Wednesday, December 18, 2025. He was a native of New Orleans, and a longtime resident of Hammond, LA. Glenn was an outgoing man with a kind, generous heart who never met a stranger. He frequently could be found at his local Waffle Houses, congregating & 'cutting up' with a group of his friends. Outside of fishing, which he absolutely loved to do, his favorite hobby was sitting back riding his lawn mower for hours at a time. Glenn was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend who is already dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Glenn is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Anita Bordelon; daughter, Tiffany Bordelon; grandchildren, Kevin Alexis, Madyson Lacorbo, Jade LeCesne, Damien LeCesne II, and Samuel LeCesne; and great grandchild, Adonis Alexis.

“ I met Glenn in April 2025. Myself (Brian), and my wife (Marie) purchased a home across the street from Glenn. Glenn gave us lots of information about our property, and the surrounding properties. Glenn was very informative, and made us feel welcomed. We would wave at each other in passing on a regular basis. Mostly, whenever we cut our lawns. Glenn never missed an opportunity to cut his grass. Sometimes I would see Glenn cut the neighbors grass. Glenn even cut grass before Thanksgiving. Glenn definitely kept busy. We send our condolences to Glenn's family, and prayers from God to comfort everyone with his Holy Spirit in the name of Christ Jesus. Sincerely, Brian and Marie. ❤️🙏🌸

“ Glenn was the example of “love thy neighbor.” There was never a time that Glenn saw Steve and I doing something or needing anything done that he didn’t come riding up on his mower or in his truck laden with power tools and just pitch in or in true Glenn style just take over and teach us the correct and easiest way how to do whatever we were attempting to do. All in good humor and always giving of his time and talents above and beyond. He looked out for us-always. He was a great friend. We will hold him in our hearts forever. We know he is already in heaven because no one ever loved his neighbor as himself more than Glenn Bordelon. Love, Florence and Steve.

“ Anita you know how much we’re all going to miss Glenn. He was more than a friend he was family. He would always come over to our house and ask why we were having a party without him whenever we would have lots of cars in the driveway. If he had an idea we needed help, he would be there. He love cutting his grass also his neighbors so we’re promising his yard will always look beautiful as usual. Our hearts are hurting ,we have so many memories he will never be forgotten. Anita we’re sending love to you and your family Sid and Linda Bonaccorso

“ Glen was the best neighbor that I have ever had and the best neighbor for the entire neighborhood. He would always have a smile, lend a hand with anything you needed and have a story for every occasion. Keep the lawn in heaven looking as good as yours always is and you will now always have that tool you needed to fix everything!
