

Glennis D. Bennett

February 23, 1949 - December 22, 2025

Glennis, age 76, went to his Heavenly Home on Monday, December 22, 2025, at North Oaks Medical Center. He was a resident of Albany, LA. Glennis spent 30 years serving the Baton Rouge Fire Department, retiring as Assistant Chief after a career he was deeply proud of. Known for his steady leadership and caring heart, he gave his life to protecting and helping others. A proud U.S. Army veteran, his sense of duty and service shaped the man he was both on and off the job. Glennis' faith was the foundation of his life, and he served faithfully as a member and deacon of Bethlehem Baptist Church. After retiring early, he and his beloved wife embraced a life of adventure, traveling across the country together and doing what they loved most, meeting people. They made countless friends along the way, many of whom remained dear to them through the years. Glennis will be remembered for his warmth, his generosity, his love of family, and the way he made others feel welcome wherever he went. His legacy of service, faith, and friendship lives on in the hearts of all who knew him.

“ Glennis attended Woodland School growing up. My mother taught him and my daddy and his were friends. His was a nice family and it seems he continued the tradition in his own family. I visited with him and you Nezzie several times when your car was serviced at Bill Hood Ford Lincoln. I send my heartfelt condolences to you and Scott and all his closest friends and church family. His was a life well lived and you will reunite one day...never more to part.

“ Where to begin...there's so many wonderful memories we've made with Glennis and Nezzie and Scott. From our time in Germany together to the many vacations we've spent together. Having our children grow up together and watching Glennis play in the pool and letting Carrie have his undivided attention. Our hearts are broken with you, but we have so many beautiful memories to remember together until we see Glennis again. We love you Nezzie and Scott and your family. Fly high Glennis ☐☐
